Beginning your teaching career, or moving to a new school, can be daunting. Starting my NQT year at Layton Primary, I quickly felt incredibly welcomed, included and valued as part of our school community, our 'Layton Family'.

Our school motto, 'Growing Great Minds Together', runs through our school like a stick of Blackpool rock. Just like the children, you are encouraged to take risks, develop your resilience and are often taken out of your comfort zone! Before joining #TeamLayton, I was terrified of public speaking, and would never volunteer to lead presentations. After encouragement and support from SLT and other members of staff, I have presented at several CPD events, including a few at our own school as an Apple Regional Training Centre, and have also encouraged other members of staff to drop into my classroom to learn new skills and share good practice. We were all encouraged to start a 'teaching Twitter', which has truly developed my own CPD and has enabled me to share ideas with other like-minded educators all over the world!

Being a large, three-form entry school, working collaboratively with others, both within my own year group and across the school, has been vital in ensuring the best possible experiences for our pupils. We are encouraged to trial new ideas and reflect on their effectiveness, which can then be implemented across the rest of the school. Learning to utilise technology effectively within my practice, to be able to respond to the needs of all children, has been invaluable and I honestly couldn't imagine teaching anywhere else!

Hello! I'm the Head Girl at Layton Primary School. Attending our school is amazing; there's so many fun and exciting opportunities we get to have each and every day, from trips to London and the Lake District to challenging lessons that make us think hard and grow great minds together . As part of my role, I always demonstrate the 5Rs and inspire other children to use them too. I am the perfect example of a role model and love working with all the other children to help them be the best that they can be. We hope to see your child joining our wonderful school soon. I can't wait to meet them!

(Head Girl)

Hi! I'm very proud to say I'm Head Boy at Layton Primary School.
